CIVIL SERVICE NOTICE

The problem of gearing industrial and agricultural production to meet ever-increasing wartime demands has created in the Federal Government an urgent demand for business and industry analysts, and for agricultural specialists, the U. S. Civil Service Commission announces.

To fill posts of business and industry analyst, the Commission is searching the nation for available men and women who have had executive experience in businesses or industries that made or distributed such commodities as food, textiles, metals, consumer goods, or industrial equipment.

For positions of agricultural specialist the Commission wants persons who have had experience or education in some technical or scientific phase of agriculture and who are qualified to do extension work, research, program planning, or conservation.

For further information apply to U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Chap Notes

Chap, March 23.- Well, Sunday was the first day of Spring, but it looked more like midwinter.

Mrs. Addie Lee is very ill at this writing.

The R. Y. P. U. social in the home of W. M. Mann, was well attended last Friday night. About 35 were present.

Mrs. Troy Whittley is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mell Jones.

Mrs. W. T. Pugh continues about the same. Those to see her recently were Mr. and Mrs Dewitt Harvey and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Dees Pugh and daughter, Audrey, were recent dinner guests of Mrs. S. B. Fore.

Ray Ferguson, of Newport News is expected to spend this week-end with home people.

According to a Stockholm report Russians are using Poles engaged in forced labor in Germany, are forbidden to go to church.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Washing machines and other household appliances are not available today. Manufacturers have converted their plants to war work. If you save today, however, by buying War Bonds, this money saved will start these factories rolling and put millions of Americans to work after the War is won.

Join the payroll savings plan at your office or factory. Save a definite amount every payday, ten per cent or more of your pay check. Your pay check today buys a pay day for tomorrow and gets you $4 back for every $3 you invest.

THE OLD BIG STRONG BANK

MISTRESS PITCHER, '43

Mollie Pitcher, a heroine
Whom everyone ought to know
Manned a gun on the firing line
In '76 or so.
Undeterred by the shot and shell
She aimed a cannon and aimed it well
And blasted the Redcoats, sword and gaiter,
In '76—or was it later?

Mistress Pitcher of '43
(May the Gods of Battle bless her!)
Is doing the same, to keep us free,
As her rollicking predecessor.
For Mollie P. in the current war
Is firing a gun from her kitchen door—
That cannon may boom with a boom that's louder,
She's saving the fats that make the powder.

She saves the drippings, she saves the grease,
From skillet and pot and pan
That once in piping-er times of peace
Went out to the garbage can.
And when it's clean as a strainer makes it,
The butcher buys it, the renderer takes it,
And Mollie's hoard (I repeat but facts) is
Soon explosive to smash the Axis.

So maybe a boy in Tunis, now
Where the Nazi legions dawdle,
Or maybe a lad on a hidden bough
In the jungle hell of Guadal,
Or a soldier sent on a Ranger's mission,
Will praise the Lord and his ammunition,
And Mollie Pitcher—the modern one—
Will be the lady behind his gun.

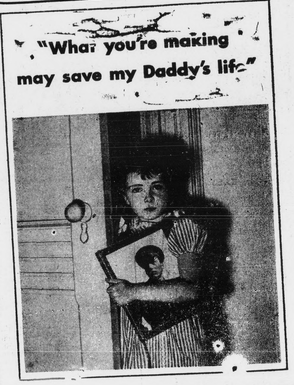
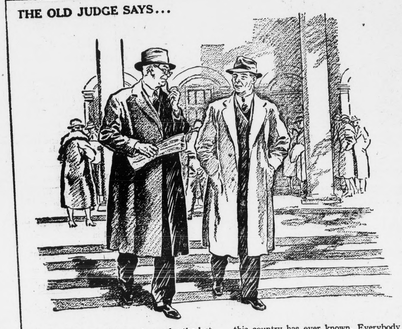
"What you're making may save my Daddy's life"



THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...



"I've been meanin' to ask you for the last couple of weeks, Judge, what you think of this prohibition talk that keeps croppin' up every so often."

"I've heard some of it too, Henry, and I feel like this about it...

"It comes from a comparatively small group of reformers... the same type that plunged us into prohibition during the last war. And, as we all remember, into nearly 14 years of the worst crime and gangsterism this country has ever known. Everybody had all the liquor they wanted only it came from bootleggers at exorbitant prices and the government was deprived of millions and millions of dollars in taxes.

"It seems to me, as I told my Congressman down in Washington last week, that we've got all we can do here at home to help win this war without wasting time arguing about things we know, from sad experience, won't work."

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

Sam Abernethy always said: "Curiosity may kill a cat but I'm no cat." Which is Sam's way of saying that when he's curious about something he goes out and gets the facts.

Seems our government feels the same way. After hearing rumors about our soldiers drinking too much government people went after the facts. They got the evidence on what our boys drink . . . and don't drink.

The government found out our Army's the best behaved in history. More'n half of 'em drink beer—nothing stronger. And the government found that selling 3.2 beer in Army camps is one reason why our Army is so temperate.

From where I sit, there isn't much cause to worry about our men in the Army. Looks like they can take care of themselves and take care of the Nazis and the Japs, too.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Uncle Sam's lighter 37-millimeter anti-tank guns are dubbed "tank killers." They are attached to the infantry, not the field artillery, and cost approximately $6,500 each. They have proved particularly effective in anti-tank warfare.

They are mobile, mounted on automobile tires and can be rapidly whisked from place to place. Your purchase of War Bonds will help pay the cost of these field pieces so necessary for our Army in this War. Join the Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory and let's "Top that ten percent" by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds.
